Destination Facts

- Kalispell ranks number 21 out of 545 micropolitan cities in the U.S. for economic strength.
- The Kalispell Core and Rail Redevelopment Project is facilitating a vibrant, pedestrian-friendly, mixed-use revitalization with retail, residential, entertainment, and cultural amenities for the downtown core.
- Glacier National Park, the Crown of the Continent, serves as the primary draw for warm season visitations to northwest Montana. The Park struggles with overcrowding in the Going-to-the-Sun Road corridor so is implementing a ticketed entry system for the summer of 2021. Despite limited services and closer of the east side during 2020 the park saw 60% increases in visitations during the fall season. Discover Kalispell's marketing promotes visits to the park outside of July and August.
- Kalispell's Glacier Park International Airport is serviced by six carriers, Alaska, Allegiant, American, Delta, Sun Country, and United, with flights to a growing number of destinations, including five new seasonal destinations beginning summer 2021. Stronger than anticipated level of performance during 2020 prompted the airport to resume the terminal expansion project in spring of 2021.
- Lodging properties in Kalispell: 23 hotels with 1,938 rooms plus over 390 short term rental (STR) properties active in Kalispell during the peak season (AirDNA). Flathead County has the highest number of STR's in Montana, at 2,814 during Sept 2019-Sept 2020 (ITRR).
- Groups of 10-500 can be comfortably and adequately accommodated in Kalispell. Two conference hotels that can accommodate up to 280 rooms per night with over 26,000 square feet of meeting space. Kalispell is receiving a growing number of event and group venues such as the Ashley Creek Historic Venue at Snowline Acres.

GPIA is seeing continued growth and expansion through the attractiveness of the destination, airport leadership, and Glacier AERO, a board represented by the Flathead Valley business and tourism industry serving to provide incentives for enhanced air service.

Scheduled to be completed spring 2022.
- Completion of major infrastructure projects: continued completion of the Kalispell bypass and the designation of the Hwy 93/Reserve to improve freight and passenger vehicle mobility.

Kalispell Challenges

- Sized between a larger Montana city and a resort town, Kalispell is neither. It's a burgeoning, thriving community that is best viewed and described as a small city with mountain-town amenities and culture. This distinction is an integral part of what sets Kalispell apart and vital to understand the competitive dynamics when setting expectations for seasonality of visitation, occupancy and room rates.
- Availability of short-term rentals (STR) such as AirBNB and VRBO influences traditional lodging occupancy and average daily rate. As of September 2020, over 12,000 STR's were active in Montana during the preceding 12 months with Flathead County receiving the highest number at 2,814 units. Kalispell STR activity during the peak summer season shows the average rental size as a 2.7-bedroom unit housing 7 guests, an average daily rate of $215/night and average occupancy of 90%. (Source: AirDNA and ITRR – The State of Short Term Rentals in Montana)
- The Canadian border closed March 20, 2020. Visitors from Alberta and British Columbia are a year-round key market for Kalispell and the Flathead Valley. Top activities by those visitors include recreational shopping, day hiking, visiting local breweries, golfing, motorboating, skiing, and events (ITRR). Due to the border closure, credit card spending in Kalispell from Canada averaged a 94% decrease between April-December 2020. At this time a border reopening date has not been announced.
- Kalispell Chamber/CVB works with partners and key stakeholders to convene discussions and create strategies for workforce housing needs including the promotion of public-private partnerships and other tools to incentivize a growing supply of mixed-use housing options.
- Weather conditions are deviating from historical patterns which poses a challenge when promoting outdoor recreation and outdoor events. The impact of national media headlines around wildfires in GNP, as well as the wildfire smoke from surrounding states impacts visitations to our area.
- Aquatic Invasive Species pose a threat to the Flathead basin waterways. The impact to Montana from zebra mussels alone is estimated at $234M in mitigation costs and lost revenue. (Source: Flathead Lake Biological Station)

Kalispell Opportunities

- Discover Kalispell is undertaking a visual brand refresh in 2021. In addition, we are working with our parent organization, the Kalispell Chamber of Commerce to develop a co-brand, a partnership for community success, growth and sustainability.
- The natural landscape is the foundation of Kalispell and its tie to agriculture and recreation. Discover Kalispell's commitment to be an advocate for sustainability of natural resources will be integrated in our communication and promotional strategy directed to travelers as well as our alliances and partnerships with area non-profits and businesses.
- Equity, diversity and inclusion will be a cornerstone for Discover Kalispell's strategy during FY22. The marketing and community stewardship initiatives will focus on fostering a welcoming environment to all, both to the community and the outdoor recreation landscape. This includes the development of content and programming to promote all aspects of the local culture by honoring diverse residents and by informing travelers on ways to safely enjoy Montana's outdoors.
- The increased number of sports and conference and event facilities being developed within our competitive destinations highlight the need for Kalispell to prioritize the expansion of indoor and outdoor event venues and other tourism assets.

Why Destination Marketing Is Important for Communities

Tourism is a competitive industry. When selecting a mountain community for a vacation destination there are many states and cities to choose from. A destination can no longer assume that if they build it they will come. Destination Marketing Organizations (DMO) such as Discover Kalispell strive to implement a tourism promotion strategy that over time will increase the competitiveness of the destination, and in turn increase revenues, taxes and local employment. New residents often began as visitors creating a virtuous cycle of economic benefits which begins with travel promotion.

Impacts of destination promotion for a community are far-reaching. Non-resident visitors spent $3.77 billion in Montana (2019) and $613 million in Flathead County (2019) (ITRR). Those dollars impact a wide range of local business such as restaurants, retail, hotels, outfitters and guides, groceries, gasoline, and rental cars.

Investment in tourism assets provides long term benefits. New businesses such as restaurants and breweries are an important part of the local experience's that visitors are attracted to but are also enjoyed by residents. When a community creates the right conditions for destination development, investment, and promotion, tourism is an economic lever that supports a strong sustainable economy.

Discover Kalispell works as a community partner to support and develop assets that are attractive to visitors but also support the quality of life for residents. Discover Kalispell's comprehensive regional and national campaigns raise Kalispell's profile, which assists the community in receiving new and expanded air service, new industries and employers, and the economic impact of recruiting conferences and events. Travelers' wants and needs as well as their methods of trip planning are constantly changing. The promotional tactics used by a DMO to reach potential visitors need to be current, effective, and genuine to the destination's local culture to garner visitor engagement as well as support and buy-in from the local community. This is achieved with adequate funding and organizational structure and expertise within the DMO.

The role of a DMO has evolved to extend beyond just marketing. A destination's tourism marketing brand works closely with local organizations and governments to be an active partner in the holistic health of the community. Some of the current priorities include:

- Sustainable Growth – Residents are questioning a DMO's contribution to peak seasons and the impact to resources and infrastructure. Discover Kalispell prioritizes its marketing spend to promote the fall, winter and spring seasons. The summer peak season is not actively promoted through paid advertising and instead is highlighted through the use of earned media, social media and newsletter marketing to promote areas and activities outside of Glacier National Park and actively guide visitors to off-the-beaten-path experiences.
- Development – DMO's are not just marketers, they are advocates and stewards of the destination's community resources. Discover Kalispell is actively supporting the following initiatives: Glacier AERO to develop new and expanded air service, the Kalispell core area and downtown development projects, providing event and visitor asset development grants, serving as an advocate for Kalispell's expanding arts and culture scene including our three downtown museums, educating in-market and potential travelers on Recreate Responsibly principles to help protect our natural resources, and honoring and promoting a variety of aspects of the culture and heritage of northwest Montana.
- Workforce – adequate workforce is a key initiative for the Kalispell Chamber of Commerce Convention & Visitor Bureau. The Chamber's 2021 workforce initiative includes a multi-year program supporting Kalispell's three top industry sectors: tourism and hospitality, manufacturing and occupational trades, and bioscience and being a leading voice to develop effective strategies to address workforce housing and childcare needs.

The Travel Decision Process

The travel industry is recognizing the pent-up demand consumers are feeling which is leading to an increased desire to travel again in 2021. With the increasing world-wide vaccination rates and pandemic fatigue, it is believed that recovery will begin in earnest during 2021. Longwoods Travel Sentiment Study indicates that 84% of American travelers have travel plans in the next six months. Skift reports that United, Delta, and Alaska Airlines are near break even or positive cash flow. Meetings and other types of group travel has restarted with bookings from 2020 contracting for the second half of 2021 and into 2022. The Trip Advisor 2021 Traveler Trend report states, "For destinations and tourism operators, the message is clear: however you choose to market your offering to travelers this year, don't wait. Every day, more and more travelers aren't just dreaming of their next trip abroad, they are planning and booking it." Destination marketing has restarted across the U.S. and competition for the attention of travelers will be fierce.

This is being called the Year of Travel Rebound and northwest Montana is anticipated to receive a high number of visitations as a desirable outdoor destination and with the increased number of non-stop flights to Kalispell. Steps to insure a safe and healthy trip will continue to remain a priority for travelers. Discover Kalispell's Travel Safe, Recreate Responsibly and Travel Tips resources will continue to play an important role providing current information to travelers and local businesses. Although the travel landscape has changed and the nation is still moving through recovery, when it comes to destination marketing and the ability to competitively reach travelers in the planning cycle, many of the strategies Discover Kalispell typically employs will remain constant.

Discover Kalispell strategies to reach consumers throughout the planning cycle:

Stage 1 - Inspiration

Messages: Speak to the desire for a trip that includes a mountain community, outdoor recreation, relaxation, friendly-small town feel, and free-spirit adventure while also addressing safety, availability of modern comforts, and dispelling perceptions of Montana being difficult to access. Include messaging in our promotions that shows the affordability of a Montana vacation once they arrive and the unique experiences and memories they'll receive (Glacier National Park, Flathead Lake). Highlight family-friendly events and activities. Tell an inspiring story of what makes our community special. Most travelers are also considering the trip in the inspiration stage and the budget continues to have a strong influence throughout the planning cycle.

Connect travelers with hotels and activity providers, highlight events during their travel dates, promote activities outside of Glacier National Park to extend the trip, and make the transaction as smooth and seamless as possible.

Leisure Travel Trends

2020 upended the tourism industry, changing the predictability of visitation seasonality and the definition of Kalispell's typical visitor. In 2021 success needs to be redefined, using this time to ask questions, identify the ideal target consumer and go after it, build business. Tread carefully but with purpose into the adjusted normal.

Destination Analysts provides weekly COVID-19 Travel Insights which outline trends in traveler sentiment and factors involved in restarting the travel industry. The April 5th weekly update on American Travel in the Period of Coronavirus showed:

- On average, American travelers believe the United States is 52.6% back to normalcy right now. Nearly half believe their life will be back to "normal" by September.
- About two-thirds of Americans are highly open to travel inspiration right now and the number of Americans actively dreaming about and planning travel reached a 2021 peak at 77.7%.

Many travelers will continue to prioritize a destination and businesses within that destination that continue to exhibit health and safety protocols. Destination Analysts survey indicated that 73.5% feel that wearing a mask is still necessary after vaccination. When asked how confident are you that you can travel safely in the current environment 36.2% were confident or very confident. Desire to travel is there but hesitations for health and safety still are a factor.

In 2021 DMO's will need to maintain a community-first focus. Destinations need to continue to demonstrate their community's commitment to safety and preserving the local culture and way of life. ITRR Residents' Attitudes Towards Tourism – 4th Quarter 2020 report shows that 61% agree or strongly agree that because of COVID-19, I am more concerned about visitors in my community. That sentiment is heightened in regions such as northwest Montana where residents also expressed that "my community is becoming overcrowded because of more visitors during the summer tourism season." Discover Kalispell will continue to communicate the health and safety guidelines for city, county and state, as well as federal lands - Glacier National Park and Flathead National Forest. Travelers also want to be aware of the percentage of residents that have been vaccinated and availability of testing.

Discover Kalispell's FY22 marketing plan addresses the importance of a community-first focus by 1) continuing to support a sustainable destination through targeted messaging about responsible recreation and safe travel, 2) develop community advocacy initiatives that promote equity, diversity and inclusivity and 3) continue to be an active participant in initiatives that add to the viability and smart growth of Kalispell and the downtown core.

Key performance indicators used during FY22 to optimize marketing and promotional campaigns:

- Smith Travel Reports – hotel occupancy, ADR, demand and revenue on a weekly basis for Kalispell and competitive set.
- Destination desirability – paid and organic media engagements and conversions, visitor guide requests, newsletter subscriptions and earned media.
- Website analytics – regular tracking of unique visitors, pages/session, session duration to retain engagement with destination and monitor campaign results through landing page activity.
- Mobile location data – track visitations daily utilizing geolocation data at a micro-destination specific level.
- Visitor spending – monitor visitor spending via credit card transactions in Kalispell gauging geographic market seasonal impacts based on overall spend and lodging spend.

Meetings Industry Trends

The meetings industry took a major hit with the 2020 pandemic and required planners to relearn and rethink everything from business models and sponsorship to event technology and content delivery. A survey of 929 planners by Northstar Meeting Group taken February 18 to March 2, 2021 found that 81% of all planners will hold their next in-person event sometime in 2021. Most of that business (59%) will fall in the second half of 2021 and just 19% will hold their next real-life gathering in 2022 or later.

Associations are leading in this progress towards recovery, followed by independent planners and sports. Respondents from those market segments are more confident that vaccine rollouts will speed the industry's recovery, more likely to hold their next in-person events in the second quarter of 2021, more apt to be planning hybrid meetings, and much less likely to hold all-virtual gatherings. Corporate meetings will be slow to return mostly due to restriction on employee travel. Liability concerns of employees with underlying health issues and budget issues are both significant factors relative to the restrictions.

Sporting events were among the few market segments that did not come to a halt in 2020. "Youth sports, in particular, have been a gift to destinations that reopened quickly, and that business remained strong even during the pandemic", points out Al Kidd, president and CEO of the Sports Events and Tourism Association. Evidence that children are less susceptible to the virus gave parents more confidence in letting their kids participate in events, and organizers followed the example of professional leagues to minimize risks and control outbreaks.

As the dust clears a bit and Discover Kalispell looks forward to the future of meetings and events in 2021-2022, one thing is clear: virtual and hybrid events are here to stay, and alongside traditional in-person events will become fixtures in most go-forward meetings and event programs. In a recent study through PCMA, 76% of planners said that they are going virtual for 2021. In another survey with Northstar Meeting Group survey, they found that 54% are now planning meetings with both online and in-person components or planning to do so.

Discover Kalispell Strategies:

- Meeting and group business will pick up starting in the fall of 2021 with Association market likely to return the quickest to in-person meetings. Discover Kalispell's primary market for meeting business is the Montana and Pacific Northwest region. ## Group Tour & Travel Trends

As the world slowly recovers from Covid-19, borders gradually start to open, the expectation of travel will look different than it did pre-pandemic. Most guided travel companies say they are confident people eventually will return to more traditional group travel but the trend toward more intimate tours has spread quickly.

Collette, who was one of the few major tour operators running trips this year, reduced its maximum capacity for the near term and most major operators say they expect smaller groups to be the norm, at least initially. The Globus family of brands, for instance, has expanded small-group departures across almost all of its guided itineraries next year, meaning guests will have the option to travel in groups that average 24 people rather than the standard size of about 40.

Many U.S. tour companies will look to domestic tours and destinations with wide-open spaces and create more FIT itineraries. What used to be considered travel hot-spots, areas that were popular prior to the pandemic, may be put on the back burner for a while. The popular destinations will be those destinations that have controlled the coronavirus and more off-the-beaten path locations will become more popular.

Discover Kalispell Strategies:

- Tour companies are reducing the capacity of tours to comply with COVID-19 guidelines and instill confidence in travelers. Discover Kalispell connects with domestic tour companies through paid and organic media placements promoting Kalispell as the perfect destination to experience wide-open spaces, outdoors and off-the-beaten path activities and experiences.
- International travel will take some time to return. Discover Kalispell will continue the relationship and marketing partnership with Rocky Mountain International (RMI) which has representatives in France, Germany, Australia, Italy, UK, Benelux and Nordic Regions. Discover Kalispell's quarterly tour operator newsletters retain connections with tour operators and highlights itineraries, group resources and amenities.

Consumer	Photo/Video Library	Secure new photos & videos that support the PR, social media & advertising.	Images touch a traveler during each phase of the decision process through social media, online adv., and mobile marketing. A social media post with an images if 10x's more likely to get engagement than a post without an image. Studies show that people only remember 10% of what they hear once 72 hours have passed. However, if you pair a relevant image with your material, people can remember 65% of the information after three days. https://medium.com/@oninelogomaker/why-images-are-so-important-to-social-media-b9411d678a8	Completion of photo/video shoot and/or acquisition of assets that meet our criteria within the available budget.	$10,000.00	This method was successful, we met our objective. Consumer	Multi-Media Marketing	Depending on campaign objectives, media will be selected that will provides the highest ROI. Print advertising in lifestyle publications that speak to a specific target market are effective in building brand awareness. Social media advertising is the most targeted way to get our message out and is used in most campaigns. Out of home elements such as digital billboards at airports are a good way to promote a new non-stop flight for example. Banner ads on selected websites are used to reach targeted consumers and connect them back to our website/campaign landing page.	Social media and other digital advertising is effective to reach travelers during trip planning and provides measurable ROI and can be tested and modified quickly if an ad is not performing up to expectations or if target geographic markets are modified. A targeted approach with print advertising that provides accompanying editorial delivers content to an already engaged audience.  The average traveler spend 13% of their time online conducting travel related activities. Many travelers continue to research and find inspiration after booking. 74% re-research a trip. Marketers, through multi-media advertising address the traveler inquiries and needs. https://www.thinkwithgoogle.com/feature/travel-customer-journey-in-2020	Success will be determined according to the media used per campaign. Success of digital ads is measured by achieving a minimum of industry standard KPI's. Most campaigns are structured to drive people to DiscoverKalispell.com, increasing website engagement and to incentivize trip planning. Exhibition (trade shows) are the third highest form of lead generation: 1. Direct Mail, 2. Email, 3. Exhibition, 4. Conferences, 5. Print Magazine, 6. Print Newspaper, 7. Mobile. https://www.outsellinc.com/product/digital-transformation-in-the-exhibition-industry/	Success will be measured by attendance at a regional travel show and completion of updated booth displays.	$2,325.00	The strategy was successful.
